1. In Atjeh, North Sumatra, there are three political movements:
 - a. The Separatist Movement, which is attempting to "free Atjeh from the Republican yoke." This movement is sponsored by the teungkus, who are hereditary rulers.
 - b. The Sumatra Timor or Eastern Sumatra Movement, which is attempting to absorb Atjeh with a view to transforming it into part of the Negara Indonesian Timor.
 - c. Teungku Yusuf's movement, which is aiming at the reinstallation of his teungku. He is supported by fanatic followers.
2. Communist infiltrants have been discovered in movements (a) and (c). All of the infiltrants are members of the Partai Komunis Indonesia of Sumatra. These infiltrants are under the leadership of Dr. Satrio and Suprodjo, important Indonesian Communist leaders in Sumatra.
